About Caleb L. Perry

Caleb L. Perry was born to a military family in Gainesville, Florida and travelled across the U.S. throughout his life and has lived in Richmond, Virginia since 2021. Caleb graduated magna cum laude from the University of Tennessee with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. During his time there, he worked with the Tennessee Municipal League where he met with state legislators, researched policy proposals, and lobbied for legislative action. Upon coming to Virginia to attend Richmond School of Law, he served on the Executive Board of the Virginia Bar Association Richmond Law Student Chapter and as an executive member. He also worked with the Treasurer of the Negotiation and Alternative Dispute Resolution Board as a national competition participant and treasurer, and has contributed to various community service initiatives, including the Legal Aid Justice Center and Senior Connections. Caleb also interned at the Suffolk City Attorney's Office, honing his skills in legal research, policy analysis, and legislative advocacy. Caleb has extensive experience in the real of personal injury, working first as a Summer Associate and paralegal at a personal injury law firm before coming onboard as an Associate Attorney and managing personal injury cases and negotiating settlements.
